

2007

January 30 Renault-Nissan Alliance announces more than 5.9 million vehicle sales in 2006.

April – The Alliance announces that its electric vehicles will be powered by advanced compact lithium-ion batteries sourced from Nissan-NEC joint venture company, AESC (Automotive Energy Supply Corporation),

July 13 Nissan begin sales of the Nissan Aprio, a subcompact car for the Mexican market, built in the Renault passenger car plant in Brazil.

September 1 The Kingdom of Morocco and the Alliance sign a Memorandum of Understanding to develop a new manufacturing complex in Tangier.

September 6 Renault-Nissan Alliance announces plans to create new technology and business centre in India.

November 19 Renault Samsung launches QM5 in Korea.

November 22 Renault announces production of Sandero in Nissan South Africa plant from 2009

December 17 Renault and AvtoVAZ announces the agreement on strategic partnership in Russia